Festival Rules

1: Entries

Last day for receipt of entries is the 20th April 2024

Entries with fees to: Bailey Lane End Music Festival c/o Andrew Jones, 63 St.Aldwyn Road, Gloucester, Glos, GL1 4RH , Telephone 07522 691402, or email your entry form to jonesa216@googlemail.com

BACS details for payments will be sent on to competitors, cash can also be used on the day or sent in advance to the address above.

Title of music and composer must be stated on the 'Entry Form'.

Competitors may not make more than one entry in an individual class. Classes 4, 5, 7 and 9 are exempt from this rule.

2: Age limits

Junior Competition ages are determined as on the day of the competition.

3: Time limit

The time limit is five (5) minutes unless otherwise stated. Marks will be lost for over running. The adjudicator may stop a competitor where the limit is exceeded.

4: Music

A copy of the selected own choice piece of music must be provided for the adjudicator on the day with the competitor's name and class number on it. No unauthorised photocopies are allowed.

The following is an extract from the Music Publishers' Association

Code of Practice: 'When an own choice is selected from a publication containing several different works and which is not published separately, one copy may be made for the use of the adjudicator at a competition or festival provided that the competitor or participant has already purchased his/her own copy and that the copy is retained and destroyed by the administrator of the competition or festival immediately after the event. This permission specifically does not apply to set works'.

It is the competitor's responsibility to ensure that they seek permission to copy direct from any copyright holder whose name does not appear in the Music Publishers' list in the back of the Code of Practice leaflet obtainable from 18/20 York Buildings, London WC2N 6JU. The 'above' does not apply to accompanists who should have a copy of the works the own choice is taken from. Photocopies for the adjudicator must be totally legible and clearly marked 'photocopy'. Photocopies will be retained and destroyed by the contest controller.

A piano will be provided for any accompaniment. If you require accompaniment to be played on a CD, you must provide your own player. All competitors must provide their own instruments.

5: Tickets

All competitors will be admitted by wristbands. Please indicate the number required on the entry form, the wristbands will be available on the door.

6: Programme

Competitors must make themselves acquainted with the times of their classes, the times will be emailed out after Sunday 21 April 2024.

Official programmes will be available on the door and can be pre-paid. Please indicate the number of copies required on the entry form. All competitors must be in attendance to compete when called on. Only in exceptional circumstances can this rule be altered and then only by arrangement with the contest controller. Order of competing in each class will be in reverse order of receipt of entry and fees etc.

7: Trophies

Cups and Shields are retained for one year and cannot be won 'outright'. They must be returned to Drybrook Band Room by 1st April 2025. Please contact Andrew Jones.

8: Entry Fees

As stated in the right hand column of each class description.

9: Information

The committee reserves the right to alter and amend the programme, if and when required. Remark sheets must be claimed as soon as the class is finished. The adjudicator's decision is final.

10: Photography and video recording

All unofficial photography and videos are prohibited onsite. Please see attached Photography consent form.
